

COFFEE MORNING SUCCESS

A LOCAL concierge business raised £650 for Parkinson's UK with a coffee morning.

Dickory Dock in Bearsden enjoyed sandwiches and cakes last month to raise awareness for the charity close to owner Mariella MacLeod's heart.

Her father suffered from the disease and she added: "Parkinson's UK was a great source of help and support when my father was diagnosed with Parkinson's. I wanted to give back to this very worthwhile charity."

Over 25 friends and clients made donations and there was a floral demonstration by Carol Mackie of Scent from Heaven.

Paul Jackson-Clark, director of Parkinson's UK said: "We are incredibly grateful to Dickory Dock and Mariella for the support."
